INDIAN RESPONSIBLE GOLD SOURCING WORKSHOP

6 DECEMBER 2019

VENUE: INDIA HABITAT CENTRE, NEW DELHI

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Time</th>
<th>Event</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 09.30 – 10.15 | Inaugural
Tyler Gillard, Head of Sector Projects, OECD Centre for Responsible Business Conduct
India government representative
Prof. Arvind Sahay, Chairperson, India Gold Policy Centre at IIM Ahmedabad |
| 10.15 – 11.15 | Panel discussion: How does imports shape Indian trade
An evidence based assessment on growing risks in the transactions
Understanding remittance policy
Understanding the extent of due diligence followed by Indian refiners and banks |
| 11.15 – 11.45 | Coffee break |
| 11.45 – 12.45 | What is the OECD Due Diligence Guidance and its global implementation programme
Rashad Abelson, Legal Expert, OECD Centre for Responsible Business Conduct |
| 12.45 – 14.00 | Lunch |
| 14.00 – 15.30 | Actions to date in India - Reflecting on 2 years of outreach and awareness raising: What has worked and what has not
Indian industry association representatives |
| 15.30 – 16.00 | Coffee break |
| 16.00 – 17.00 | Aligning industry initiatives with the OECD Guidance - Lessons learnt in other international gold markets
Moderator: Tyler Gillard, Head of Sector Projects, OECD Centre for Responsible Business Conduct
Sakhila Mirza, London Bullion Market Association
Ajay Mathur, Dubai Multi Commodities Centre
Marianna Smirnova, Responsible Minerals Initiative
Kinjal Shah, Responsible Jewellery Council |
| 17.00 – 18.00 | Roadmap for 2020: A panel discussion with Indian trade associations and government officials
This session will allow participants to hear from major Indian industry associations and government representatives on the proposed way forward, starting in 2020:
Discussing the Indian Responsible Mineral Sourcing draft |
Associate Partner: India Bullion and Jewellers Association