The JSW School of Public Policy (JSW-SPP) at the Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad (IIMA) is a centre of excellence in the making. It seeks to make a distinctive contribution to knowledge about public policy through cutting-edge research into the emerging Indian experience of policy formulation and design, policy choice, and policy impact, and through its educational programs. It aims at encouraging an interdisciplinary approach that allows diverse theoretical and methodological perspectives to be brought to the study of public policy. IIMA (www.iima.ac.in) is seeking to appoint faculty members who have specialized in Public Policy/ Administration, Political Science, and Sociology, to JSW-SPP.

Applicants must have a doctorate from a reputed institution in one of the following areas: (a) Public Policy/ Administration, preferably with specialization in law, regulation or governance; (b) Political Science, preferably with the doctoral work demonstrating clear links with the domain of public policy; (c) Sociology, preferably with the doctoral work demonstrating clear links with the domain of public policy. In addition, applicants must have a track record of outstanding academic research with publications in journals ranked highly in the relevant categories in journal ranking lists such as SCIImago or similar lists, or of policy-related research with proven impact on policy formulation and implementation, or of highly cited work.

IIMA appoints faculty at three levels:
(a) Professor: doctorate, with a minimum of 10 years’ experience of which at least four years should be at the level of Associate Professor, and a good track record of outstanding academic research as described above.
(b) Associate Professor: doctorate, with a minimum of eight years’ experience of which at least three years should be at the level of Assistant Professor, and a good track record of outstanding academic research as described above.
(c) Assistant Professor: doctorate, preferably with three years research/ teaching experience, and a good track record of outstanding academic research as described above. Persons who are about to complete their doctorates may also apply for this position, but they must have demonstrated their research potential with publications or forthcoming publications in highly ranked international journals.

The faculty members selected will be expected to engage in high-quality research in public policy, teaching at the postgraduate and doctoral levels and delivering professional development (executive education) programs for personnel engaged in public policy formulation and implementation. They will be expected to work collaboratively with other faculty members of IIMA in developing a strong research and teaching agenda for JSW-SPP.
Please submit the following:

1. Your resume, as of April 1, 2018, describing your educational record, teaching and research experience, jobs held, list of publications.
2. Links to, or copies of, two of your journal articles or other publications that demonstrate your scholarship.
3. An 800-word statement of your future plans for research and teaching, indicating how these would be integrated into public policy educational programs, both long-term and short-term, that JSW-SPP might undertake in the future.

IIMA is committed to diversity and is an equal opportunity employer; it welcomes applications from persons meeting the qualification criteria mentioned earlier and belonging to under-represented socio-economic groups.

Please send your applications to the Director, Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad at director@iima.ac.in, or to Dean (Faculty), Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad at dean-fac@iima.ac.in, by July 15, 2018.
