

INDIAN INSTITUTE OF MANAGEMENT AHMEDABAD

Requires

Senior Policy Consultant For India Gold Policy Centre

About IGPC: The India Gold Policy Center (IGPC) at the Indian Institute of Management Ahmedabad (IIMA) is a think tank conducting applied research on the Gold Industry in India and has been an advisor to Department of Economic Affairs on the required policy reforms related to gold markets in India.

In Budget 2018 Finance Minister announced to develop a comprehensive gold policy, to develop gold as an asset class, a spot gold exchange and revamp the gold monetization scheme. All of these efforts are directed to formalizing the gold market. Some of the countries globally are examples on the economics benefits of formalizing and internationalizing the gold trade. To appreciate how international markets operate and putting it in context to Indian market requires comprehensive understanding of the markets at ground both globally and India. In order to facilitate this transition IGPC intends to hire a Senior Policy Consultant who would with their expert knowledge about global and Indian gold market facilitate the decision-making process for policy makers.
