Vice President (Research) – India Gold Policy Centre (IGPC)

The India Gold Policy Centre (IGPC) at Indian Institute of Management, Ahmedabad holds the unique identity as an academic research-based think tank on gold with a focus on Indian gold economy and business. Since its inception in November 2014, IGPC has played a transformative role in the Indian gold sector and is recognised widely by the policy planners and stakeholders for our objective remarks and inputs.

IGPC has a direct and close engagement with the industry and policy makers; we try to address problems that are relevant to the Indian gold industry. Over the years, we have successfully facilitated scholarly research in the field, and we attempt to bring together all stakeholders of the gold market. The mix of intellects from industry and academia has driven IGPC to a pole position in this field.

We are looking for a seasoned professional, preferably in the gold market, who could support all the IGPC activities towards exceling and driving the centre's vision.

Job Description:

- Engage with the stakeholders across the gold value chain and bring together academic research at IIMA along the industry needs and policy advisory.
